

Benefits:

Advance School management System helps improve the quality and effectiveness of education by empowering students, parents and teachers of virtually any school of any size with real-time information, relevant assessment tools and access to educational resources online.

Teachers, secretaries and administrators use Advance School management System to manage student records, handle enrollments, class schedules, reports etc.

Parents/guardians and students use Advance School management System to communicate with teachers and monitor performance in real-time, such as grades, attendance, homework assignments and much more.

Advance School management System (ASMS) is an advanced student Information System. It incorporates best practices and result-oriented methods followed in various departments of school/education institution, thereby enabling quantum improvements in productivity levels of school and student. ASMS improve the quality and effectiveness of education and institution, by empowering students, parents and educators with real-time information, relevant assessment tools and access to educational resources online. Advance School Management System (ASMS) is an Effective, Efficient, Integrated and Comprehensive Management Solution for any Educational Institutes like school, college, institutes & universities.

FEATURES

- ✓ Basic knowledge of computers required for operation of School Management System. Advance School management System has user-friendly application interface.
- ✓ An inbuilt Settings module makes Advance School management System flexibility to cater to diverse organizational needs.
- ✓ Advance School management System is customizable, multilingual.
- ✓ Advance School management System brings information to the user's desktop through integration across all modules.
- ✓ Advance School management System is multi user, multi branch/School and web-based system. Advance School management System has administrator controlled user privileges for Multi-level system access control for security.
- ✓ Advance School management System has pre-defined reports. These are used for normal reporting as well as Student & teacher development purpose. Additionally, Advance School management System can be easily customized for their own customized reports.
- ✓ Better co-ordination between student –teacher, parent – institute, teacher- teacher and teacher- management increases quality and effectiveness of education and institution and increased transparency of operations at all levels.
- ✓ It will work with the current systems and leverage existing technology.